SELLER'S ENERGY CONSUMPTION EVALUATION FORM

The Seller and the Buyer may waive this form if both parties agree and sign the "Waiver" found on page 4.

In accordance with Nevada Revised Statute ("NRS") 113.115, a seller of residential real property in Nevada must prepare an energy consumption evaluation for the property before closing the transaction; unless it is waived by the buyer and seller, or meets one of the other exclusions (see below for "Explanations"). A seller may complete the form on his or her own. This form may also be completed by a certified home inspector who is any person certified by the Real Estate Division of the State of Nevada, Department of Business and Industry as an "inspector" pursuant to NRS 645D.040.

Purpose of Statement: (1) This statement is an evaluation of the energy consumption of the residential property known by the Seller in compliance with the NRS 113.115(3), effective January 1, 2011. Unless otherwise advised, the Seller does not possess any expertise in construction, architecture, engineering or any other specific area related to the construction or condition of the improvements on the property or the land. Also, unless otherwise advised, the Seller has not conducted any inspection of generally inaccessible areas such as the foundation or roof. This statement is not a warranty of any kind by the Seller or by any Agent representing the Seller in this transaction and is not a substitute for any inspections or warranties the Buyer may wish to obtain.

EXPLANATIONS

Who Needs to Complete this Form? Sellers of residential property in Nevada are required to have the energy consumption of the residential property evaluated before closing a transaction for conveyance. Completing the included form and delivering it to the buyer before closing a transaction for conveyance satisfies this requirement. This form was created pursuant to regulations adopted by the Nevada Energy Commissioner ("Commissioner"). The copy of the regulation can be found at <http://renewableenergy.state.nv.us/>.

Who Does Not Need to Complete this Form? This form does not need to be completed where a transaction for conveyance is: (a) By foreclosure pursuant to chapter 107 of NRS; (b) Between any co-owners of the property, spouses or persons related within the third degree of consanguinity; (c) By a person who takes temporary possession or control of or title to the property solely to facilitate the sale of the property on behalf of a person who relocates to another county, state or country before title to the property is transferred to a purchaser; or (d) If the seller and purchaser agree to waive the requirements for the evaluation. Further, if an evaluation of a residential property was completed not more than 5 years before the seller and purchaser entered into the agreement to purchase the residential property, the seller may serve the purchaser with that evaluation.

Do I Have to Use This Form? The evaluation of the energy consumption of residential property must be completed on the most recent version of the form. The form must not be modified, altered or amended in any manner except by or with the approval of the Commissioner.

Can I Hire Someone to Fill Out This Form For Me? A seller may complete the form on his or her own. This form may also be completed by a certified home inspector who is any person certified by the Real Estate Division of the State of Nevada, Department of Business and Industry as an "inspector" pursuant to NRS 645D.040.

What do These Words Mean?

"Residential property" is defined as any land in Nevada to which is affixed not less than one or more than four dwelling units, NRS 701.250(3)(b)

"Dwelling Unit" is defined as any building, structure or portion thereof which is occupied as, or designed or intended for occupancy as, a residence by one person who maintains a household or by two or more persons who maintain a common household, NRS 113.100(3)

"Seller" is defined as a person who sells or intends to sell any residential property, NRS 113.100(5)

"Reasonably available" means ascertainable to a reasonable person under the same or similar circumstances, or in the case of a mechanical device, observable by visual labeling on the device. For example, if a property has never been occupied, then certain utility bill information is not "reasonably available." Further, certain appliances in a dwelling unit may be of an age such that data regarding the appliances may not be available or observable by visual labeling on the device. Sellers must make a good faith effort to obtain data where and when it is available.

"Energy Star label" means a product that has earned the Energy Star label pursuant to the program established by the United States Department of Energy pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 6294a, or its successor. More information on the energy star program is available at: <http://www.energystar.gov/>

"Net metering" means a facility or energy system for the generation of electricity that: (a) Uses renewable energy as its primary source of energy to generate electricity; (b) Has a generating capacity of not more than 1 megawatt; (c) Is located on the customer-generator's premises; (d) Operates in parallel with the utility's transmission and distribution facilities; and (e) Is intended primarily to offset part or all of the customer-generator's requirements for electricity (see NRS 704.766 through NRS 704.775 for further information).
